PRESIDENT DIAZ MAY RESIGN OFFICE

PRESIDENT DIAZ OF MEXICO.

New York, Jan. 31.—A special to the Sun from Monterey, Mexico, says: A Cabinet officer is authority for the statement that if the arbitration plan proposed by the Pan-American Congress is consummated, President Porfirio Diaz will resign from office and spend the remainder of his days in retirement. He is heartily in favor of the peace movement, as it will assure the peace of Mexico upon his retirement from the responsibilities of his high office, but has sacrificed his personal feelings in the matter in order that the period of peace might continue unbroken.

England and Japan Protest to Chinese

London, Feb. 1.—From Peking the correspondent of the Daily Times cables that Great Britain and Japan, supported by the United States, while not opposing the completion of an equitable agreement safeguarding Russia's interests, energetically protest against the infringement of their rights involved in the agreement between China and the Russo-Chinese Bank, which gives Russia exclusive mining and other privileges. The signing of this agreement has, therefore, been delayed. Germany has taken no action in this matter, but, on the contrary, has given many indications of approval of Russia's policy, which would furnish her with an easy pretext for obtaining similar preferential rights throughout Shantung province.

New York, Jan. 30.—Gilbert Parker, the novelist and Member of Parliament, sailed for England today on the steamship St. Paul. Before sailing Parker said he had not been quoted correctly on his remarks at the Press Club dinner January 18th. While making a speech on the Boer war Parker was answered by Representative William Sulzer, who took exception to Mr. Parker's remarks.

"None of the papers quoted me correctly," said Parker. "What I said was, whether England was right or wrong, whatever mistake had been made or whatever circumstances that led up to the war, one thing was sure—the American flag, as well as the English flag, wherever planted, meant justice, freedom and liberty for all."

Parker said that one of the objects of his visit here was to look into the labor question for the British Parliament, of which he is a member. "I shall report to Parliament on my return," said Parker, "that in my opinion the American workman is more enterprising than the English; that the American workman welcomes machinery, while the English workman has not come to that yet."

London, Jan. 30.—The report of the Parliamentary committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery and corruption made by Sir John Blundell Maple (Conservative) against the British officers who purchased army horses in Austro-Hungary censures Sir John for unjustifiable attacks on the integrity of the officers. At the same time, however, the committee finds that an excessive price was paid, whereby horse dealers were enabled to divide a profit of about $15 on horses which cost the contractors $12 to $17. The committee also expresses surprise at the fact that the Government remount department took no steps to ascertain the best sources of supply in Hungary until the South African war had been in progress for six months, thereby involving the country in a loss of $12,000 on a single contract.

They would gladly welcome the next step in the solution of this problem.

Newlands—Now, as a permanent arrangement, do you think they would prefer simply commercial union with this country, with tariff concessions on both sides, or political union, which, of course, would involve complete commercial union?

Bliss—That I do not know, sir; but I am satisfied that in this commercial union of which you speak any condition that the United States chose to impose would be gladly accepted. Any modification in any law or creation of a new law would be gladly met by Cuba to secure that which is all that she asks now, namely, close commercial relations with the United States.

Newlands—Do you think their disposition as to political union with this country arises from these commercial considerations, or do these other considerations enter into it?

Bliss—I think it all grows out of the commercial considerations.

Newlands—It is represented here that there is intense hostility upon the part of Cubans to Americans.

Bliss—There is on the part of a certain noisy element—well, I will not say that, but an outspoken element—yes, sir.

Newlands—Now, is that a large proportion?

Bliss—I think it is a very small proportion, largely represented by the politicians of whom I spoke, whose immediate hope is in the establishment of their independent government, the gratification of their pride and ambition.

Marines Had Suffered Most Terrible Hardship

Manila, Jan. 28.—Gen. Chaffee curtailed his trip and returned here this morning. He says he found the conditions satisfactory everywhere except in Samar, where continuous rain during the past two months has retarded the campaign, especially against such an elusive enemy.

The condition of Captain Davis P. Porter's marines, who took part in the expedition into the interior of Samar, is much worse than previously described. They suffered fearful hardships and were without food for several days.

The natives who accompanied the marines declared they were unable to distinguish the edible roots, which the marines did not believe. The anger of the marines against the natives is intense. None of the latter returned with the marines. The marines suffered so acutely from starvation that they ate raw the flesh of two dogs.</
